Honorable Judge Freedman:

I am presently discussing the pending issues over the telephone with Mr. Aboudi. We believe that we can submit a Joint CMS on or before Friday, January 28, 2011 that will address the Court's prior requests. We ask the Court to continue the CMC to 2/4/2011 at 11:00 am. We thank your Honor for extending us this courtesy and we apologize again for the inconvenience.

Counsel - As you note, it is not helpful to the Court or the parties to be so late in providing a CMS. The Court is prepared to continue the CMC to 2/4/2011 at 11:00 am if the parties actually believe that the additional time will assist in resolving the pending issues. If the Court receives an affirmative response from all counsel to this effect the CMC may be continued, otherwise counsel should appear this afternoon.

The attached Case Management Conference Statement pertains to the Case Management Conference of today, January 20, 2011 at 2 p.m. Plaintiffs sincerely apologize for the untimely service of this statement. The parties initiated the meet and confer process as instructed by the Court but were unable to complete the process or a Joint CMC statement by this date. Plaintiffs believe that with an extension of time the parties would be able to comply with the Court's instruction. Plaintiffs plan to appear at the conference today unless notified otherwise by the Court.
